VERYBUSY'S

ACTIONPAINTING

Artistic visions for the new FW 15-16 collection from Verybusy, 100% Made in Italy knitwear brand that has now reached her fifth season.

Manual prints, designs achieved with brushes or rollers and manually sprayed sweaters make this brand hard to equal, with a certainly unique and distinctive effect.

Autumnal colours, warm and embracing, for oversized items that have by now become a must for Verybusy, presented in alternative weights and yarns with exclusive designs.

Sweaters with different wearabilities for the New Basic line, proposing details and characteristics that always change according to model and season, together with Color Block, reality that is born from the matching of yarn-dyed techniques with overlapping prints.

Debuting is an outwear item in stitched fabric with different internal and external colors, and, to top it all off, an accessory line including ponchos and scarfs that give and added value as well as an essential detail.

Everything and its pole opposite thanks to the reverse effect, where items have a great positive/negative effect due to shades created with manual printing.

A woman that loves to stand out, unique like a painting and never equal to herself.
